
LuXout Theatre

A Specialty Group Theatre

Tony Lovette-President

Ned Dunford-Vice President

Performed by – Scott D MacFadyen

8518 Peconic Dr.
Orlando, FL 32835

850-974-7201

The DRAPES of WRATH

A New Play by
Scott MacFadyen

With
(in alphabetical order)

Scott MacFadyen

Training by- Ned Dunford

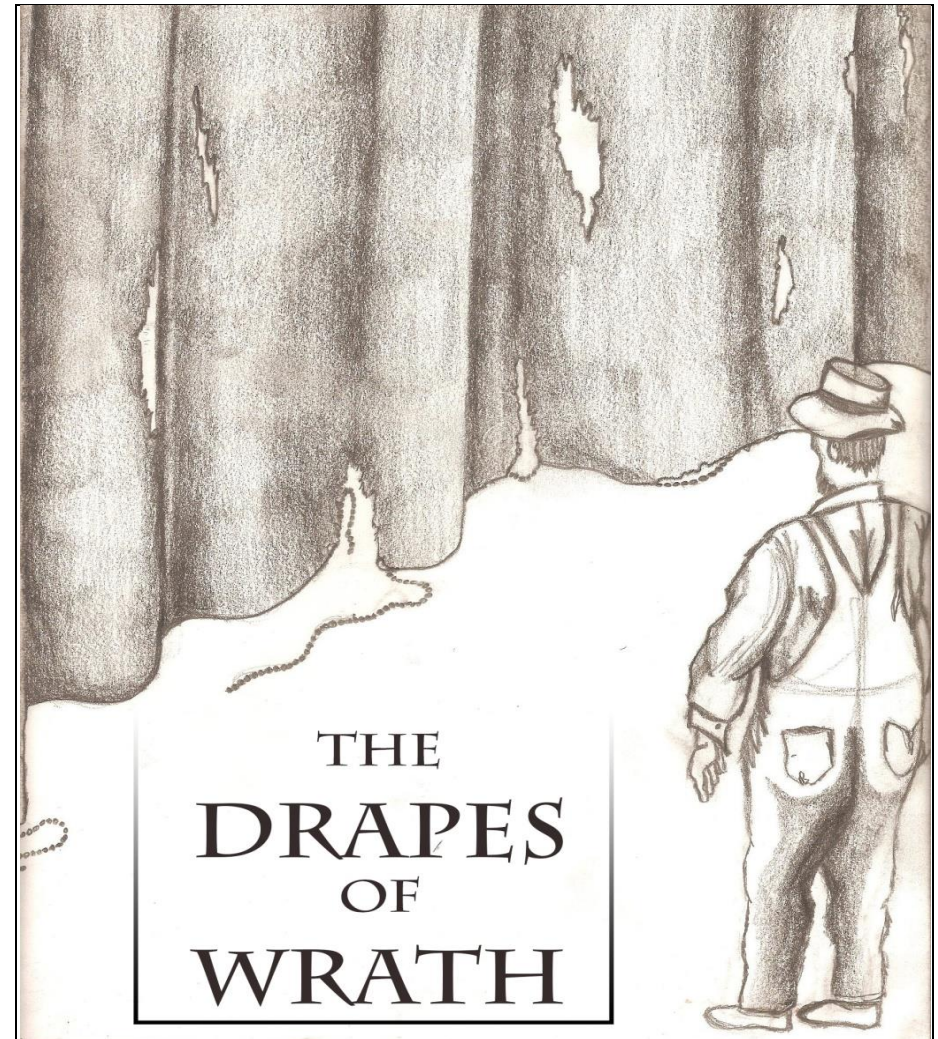

Casting – Glenn A. Lovette

www.luxout.com

LUXBILL

LuXout Theatre

Illustrating the plight of the stage drape

THE DRAPES
OF WRATH

October 9-11, 2014

The Plight of the Typical American Stage Drape has Gone on for Decades, Frustrating Countless Thespians and Audience Members Alike.

Stained And Soiled

Ripped
And Torn

Shredded

Worn
And Transparent

Like anything on this good Earth, a little care Done in a timely manner will preserve a drape's life.

Lack of care will severely shorten their life.

So...

Vacuum Dry-clean Retreat

OR...

Replace with IFR Polyester Velours

TOP 10 REASONS TO REPLACE STAGE CURTAINS

- 10 - They were new during the Carter years
- 9 - Accumulated dust is older than most teachers
- 8 - 15 to 20 years of scenery and stage paint
- 7 - Middle School students
- 6 - Tarzan practice
- 5 - Nobody remembers what original color was
- 4 - High School Students
- 3 - Peter Pan try-outs
- 2 - Main drape looks like Joseph's Amazing coat
- 1 - Keeps Fire Safety Inspectors Happy!

"You're bound to get idears if you go thinkin' about stuff." - JS